

recommended wines

'organic' adobe, 2007/08
casablanca valley, chile

'great wines begin on the vine' that's the motto of our producers in the casablanca valley, as such all their vineyards are treated as living resources, with special attention given to a healthy and natural growing process.

sauvignon blanc

lively tropical fruit and a fresh citrus character, lead to a dry elegant finish. everything you should expect from a great chilean sauvignon.

bottle £19.95 glass 175ml £4.75 250ml £6.85

cabernet sauvignon

rich cassis fruit lead the wine to a warm, round finish with a hint of spice. a wine to enjoy on its own or with well flavoured meat.

bottle £19.95 glass 175ml £4.95 250ml £6.85

chateau minuty rose reserve, cotes de provence, france, 2007

domaine minuty is in the village of gassin on the st tropez peninsula, gaining cru classe status in 1955 is one of provence's flagship estates.
the wine is a blend of, grenache, tiburon and cinsault grapes.

bottle £27.00

seared tuna carpaccio with honey and sesame 7.50

sautéed chicken livers (n)
with grapes, sweet sherry and toasted almonds
6.50

sicilian baked seabass (n)
with cherry tomato
and basil sauce
16.95

roasted gressingham duck
with orange and spice 16.95

gratin of summer berries
with raspberry sorbet
6.25

sides

jersey royal potatoes
with parsley butter
3.25

summer salad to share
with classic french dressing 6.95